גרסת הדפדפן הזאת לא נתמכת יותר. צריך לשדרג לדפדפן נתמך.
למידע נוסף

עמק שווה
عمق شبيه
Emek Shaveh

March 11th, 2026

Sebastia: Updated Position Paper on the Threat of Expropriation, Appropriation and Annexation[1]

Note: This is an updated version with details of the recent expropriation order issued by the Israeli Civil Administration for the entire site of Sebastia which requires immediate attention.

Executive Summary

Sebastia, which has been included since 2012 on the UNESCO Tentative List of World Heritage Sites for the State of Palestine, is one of the region's most important ancient cities and cultural landscapes. In an alarming development, the Israeli Civil Administration issued on 11th February 2026 a second expropriation notice for the entire site of Sebastia and its surrounding area, a total of 1800 dunams, including privately owned land belonging to residents of Sebastia and the neighbouring village of Burka. This latest order follows on an